

Dear parents and guardians,

The Conseil scolaire francophone de la Colombie-Britannique wishes to welcome and acknowledge the Aboriginal heritages within our school communities. It is therefore our pleasure to invite you to identify your Aboriginal ancestry if you are First Nations whether status or non-status, Inuit or Métis. Parents will be taken at their word and no documentation or evidence is required for self-identification in the case of non-status aboriginal people.

Your aboriginal ancestry may be via a parent, grandparent or great-grandparent, either in BC or elsewhere in Canada. Special targeted provincial education funds are allocated to the district to help improve cultural understanding, and academic achievement for aboriginal students based on the number of students identified. If you would like your child to take advantage of the First Nation Education program you just need to register your children's aboriginal ancestry by signing and returning the Aboriginal Heritage Self-identification Form.

The Ministry accepts the word of parents. No written or legal proof is required, recognizing that such knowledge is often traditionally oral. A simple signed declaration will suffice. If you wish, you may make your aboriginal heritage known to the school by filling out the Aboriginal Heritage Self-identification Form, and returning it to your child's school secretarial office. Have a great school year!

Best regards,

A Veilleux
